Dear Barbara park,

my name is Tamika and I go to viscount alexandre public school and I'm nine years old. I'm writing you a letter because my teacher Mr. Moodie said that we are going to write a letter to our favourite author and we thought that was the best idea ever so now I'm writing to you. I think you're the best author in the whole wide world. who is your favorite author? I don't write english books. I usually write French books. One of them was "named les bonbons vert" in english "The green candy" it's about a girl who gives out prison candy. Now let's talk about your books. My favorite book the book collection is the stupid smelly school bus because she doesn't want to go on the school bus because she thinks it's smelly. So she hide in the closet and after she has to go to the bathroom, but it's locked so she called 911. That's my favorite part. What's yours? I think you should write a book about when Junnie B Jones goes to Hollywood

On a humongous garbage truck. I think you wrote 53 books. That was just a estimation. How did you invent Junnie B Jones. How many books did actually rewrite. Thank you for reading my letter!

Sincerely

Tamika Simpson
